SPECIAL EDUCATION HEARING OFFICE

QUARTERLY REPORT

October-December 2004
2nd Quarter Fiscal Year 2004/2005

Pre-hearing Request Mediation (MO's)

During this quarter, 109 pre-hearing requests for mediation were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. There were 71 pre-hearing requests for mediation from parents, and 38 from local educational agencies (LEAs). Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most pre-hearing requests with 43 requests. The 109 pre-hearing requests for mediation compare with 78 requests received during the same quarter in 2003 representing a 39% increase.

Hearing Requests (SN's)

During this quarter, 628 requests for hearing were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. Mediation was waived by the parents in 6 of the cases; the remaining 622 cases were referred to mediation. There were 536 requests for hearing from parents and 86 requests from LEAs. At the time of filing, either attorneys or advocates represented 64% of the parents and 58% of the LEAs were similarly represented by either attorneys or advocates. Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most due process hearing requests with 161 requests, followed by Newport-Mesa Unified School District with 16 requests for due process hearings. The 628 requests compare with 650 requests received during the same quarter in 2003, a 4% decrease.

Pre-hearing Request Mediation Results (MO Dispositions)

During this quarter, there were 110 mediation dispositions.¹ Of the 110 dispositions, 55 cases were resolved in mediation, 55 cases did not resolve, although 3 were withdrawn after mediation, and in 4 cases a hearing was requested. In the 90 cases where mediation occurred, 70 can be considered successful mediations and account for 78% of the dispositions. The 110 mediation dispositions compare with 74 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2003, a 49% increase.

Mediation Results (SN Dispositions)

During this quarter, 614 cases referred to mediation closed.² Of these cases, 181 withdrew or were dismissed prior to mediation. In the 433 cases where mediation occurred, 256 cases were resolved at mediation and 152 were withdrawn or dismissed upon request of the parties after mediation began. These 408 cases can be considered successful mediations and account for a 94% success rate. Of the 59 cases that went to hearing, parties attempted mediation in 25 cases and waived mediation in 34 cases. These 25 cases represent 6% of the mediated cases. The 614 mediation dispositions compare with 537 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2003, a 14% increase.

¹ These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 109 pre-hearing mediation requests. Many of the cases that make up "pre-hearing request mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for mediation was filed in a previous quarter. "Pre-hearing request mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case either being resolved, withdrawn, unresolved with no hearing requested, or closed because a party refused to mediate.

² These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 628 hearing requests. Many of the cases that make up "mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for hearing was filed in a previous quarter. "Mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case being resolved, withdrawn, dismissed upon request of the parties, or referred for a hearing.

Law and Motion

There were 593 law and motion orders during the quarter. Of the 593 orders issued, 67 were minute orders (verbal orders) and 526 were written orders. An attorney or advocate represented parents in 460 of the 593 orders. LEAs were similarly represented in 504 of the orders. The 593 orders compare with 524 orders issued during the same quarter in 2003, a less than 13% increase.

Hearing Output

During this quarter, 59 hearings were resolved. Decisions were rendered in 30 of these cases (51%). All of the 29 remaining hearings were dismissed or withdrawn by request of the parties after the hearing had commenced but prior to a written decision being rendered. The 59 resolved hearings compare with 66 resolved hearings during the same quarter in 2003, representing a 12% decrease.

Hearing Decisions

A total of 30 decisions were rendered during this period, with an average of 25.8 pages per decision. The total days of hearings represented by these 30 decisions is 148, with an average of 4.9 days per hearing. Of the 30 decisions, 67% of these were rendered in favor of LEAs and 13% of the decisions were rendered in favor of parents, with the remaining 20% resulting in split decisions. An attorney or advocate in 28 of the 30 cases represented the LEAs, and parents were similarly represented in 24 cases. The 30 hearing decisions compare with the 30 hearing decisions during the same quarter in 2003, no statistical changes occurred.

Appeals

The Hearing Office was notified that 11 appeals were filed this quarter. The Special Education Hearing Office was not named as a respondent. The Hearing Office was notified of one appealed case where the U.S. District Court granted the plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and remanded the case back to the Special Education Hearing Office.

Administration

Glenn Fait and Edwin Villmoare continued to manage all programs for efficiency and conformity. Glenn Fait, Ed Villmoare, and Mary Cote reviewed all decisions to ensure compliance with special education laws and regulations, and Jeanne Benvenuti reviewed them for clarity and grammatical accuracy.

Personnel

During this quarter, Trevor Skarda, Kellianne Fedio, Roberta Ward and Terrence Ohler left their position as a full time Hearing Officers. No other changes occurred during this quarter.

SPECIAL EDUCATION HEARING OFFICEQUARTERLY REPORT

January-March 2005
3rd Quarter Fiscal Year 2004/2005

Pre-hearing Request Mediation (MO's)

During this quarter, 98 pre-hearing requests for mediation were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. There were 54 pre-hearing requests for mediation from parents, and 44 from local educational agencies (LEAs). Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most pre-hearing requests with 40 requests. The 98 pre-hearing requests for mediation compare with 110 requests received during the same quarter in 2004 representing an 11% decrease.

Hearing Requests (SN's)

During this quarter, 818 requests for hearing were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. Mediation was waived by the LEA in 3 cases and by the parents in 3 of the cases; the remaining 812 cases were referred to mediation. There were 722 requests for hearing from parents and 90 requests from LEAs. At the time of filing, either attorneys or advocates represented 68% of the parents and 56% of the LEAs were similarly represented by either attorneys or advocates. Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most due process hearing requests with 228 requests, followed by San Diego Unified School District with 31 requests for due process hearings. The 818 requests compare with 746 requests received during the same quarter in 2004, a 10% increase.

Pre-hearing Request Mediation Results (MO Dispositions)

During this quarter, there were 107 mediation dispositions.¹ Of the 107 dispositions, 55 cases were resolved in mediation, 52 cases did not resolve, although 13 were withdrawn after mediation, and in 8 cases a hearing was requested. Of the 79 cases where mediation occurred, 72 can be considered successful mediations and account for 91% of the dispositions. The 107 mediation dispositions compare with 125 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2004, a 14% decrease.

Mediation Results (SN Dispositions)

During this quarter, 566 cases referred to mediation closed.² Of these cases, 130 withdrew or were dismissed prior to mediation. In the 436 cases where mediation occurred, 289 cases were resolved at mediation and 118 were withdrawn or dismissed upon request of the parties after mediation began. These 407 cases can be considered successful mediations and account for a 93% success rate. Of the 68 cases that went to hearing, parties attempted mediation in 29 cases and waived mediation in 39 cases. These 29 cases represent 7% of the mediated cases. The 566 mediation dispositions compare with 748 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2004, a 32% decrease.

¹These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 98 pre-hearing mediation requests. Many of the cases that make up "pre-hearing request mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for mediation was filed in a previous quarter. "Pre-hearing request mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case being resolved, withdrawn, unresolved with no hearing requested, or closed because a party refused to mediate.

²These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 818 hearing requests. Many of the cases that make up "mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for hearing was filed in a previous quarter. "Mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case being resolved, withdrawn, dismissed upon request of the parties, or referred for a hearing.

Law and Motion

There were 921 law and motion orders during the quarter. Of the 921 orders issued, 496 were minute orders (verbal orders) and 425 were written orders. An attorney or advocate represented parents in 390 of the 921 orders. LEAs were similarly represented in 431 of the orders. The 921 orders compare with 682 orders issued during the same quarter in 2004, representing a 35% increase.

Hearing Output

During this quarter, 68 hearings were resolved. Decisions were rendered in 29 of these cases (43%). All of the 39 remaining hearings were dismissed or withdrawn by request of the parties after the hearing had commenced but prior to a written decision being rendered. The 68 resolved hearings compare with 67 resolved hearings during the same quarter in 2004, representing a 1% increase.

Hearing Decisions

A total of 29 decisions were rendered during this period, with an average of 28.4 pages per decision. The total days of hearings represented by these 29 decisions is 135, with an average of 4.7 days per hearing. Of the 29 decisions, 52% of these were rendered in favor of LEAs and 7% of the decisions were rendered in favor of parents, while 38% resulted in split decisions. No party prevailed in the remaining 3%. An attorney or advocate in 23 of the 29 cases represented the LEAs, and parents were similarly represented in 22 cases. The 29 hearing decisions compare with the 33 hearing decisions during the same quarter in 2004, a 12% decrease.

Appeals

The Hearing Office was notified that 5 appeals were filed this quarter. Two named the Special Education Hearing Office as a respondent. The Hearing office was notified that one appealed case settled and the appeal was dismissed. The Hearing Office was also notified of four appealed case where the U.S. District Court remanded the cases back to the Special Education Hearing Office.

Administration

Glenn Fait and Edwin Villmoare continued to manage all programs for efficiency and conformity. Glenn Fait, Ed Villmoare, and Mary Cote reviewed all decisions to ensure compliance with special education laws and regulations, and Jeanne Benvenuti reviewed them for clarity and grammatical accuracy.

Personnel

During this quarter, Larry Mendel and Van Vu left their position as a full time Hearing Officers.

SPECIAL EDUCATION HEARING OFFICE

QUARTERLY REPORT

April-June 2005
4th Quarter Fiscal Year 2004/2005

Pre-hearing Request Mediation (MO's)

During this quarter, 134 pre-hearing requests for mediation were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. There were 92 pre-hearing requests for mediation from parents, and 42 from local educational agencies (LEAs). Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most pre-hearing requests with 68 requests. The 134 pre-hearing requests for mediation compare with 148 requests received during the same quarter in 2004 representing a 9% decrease.

Hearing Requests (SN's)

During this quarter, 1,138 requests for hearing were received by the Special Education Hearing Office. Mediation was waived by the LEA in 2 cases and by the parents in 9 of the cases; the remaining 1,127 cases were referred to mediation. There were 1,038 requests for hearing from parents and 100 requests from LEAs. At the time of filing, either attorneys or advocates represented 60% of the parents and 54% of the LEAs were similarly represented by either attorneys or advocates. Los Angeles Unified School District accounted for the most due process hearing requests with 359 requests, followed by San Diego Unified School District with 44 requests for due process hearings. The 1,138 requests compare with 955 requests received during the same quarter in 2004, a 19% increase.

Pre-hearing Request Mediation Results (MO Dispositions)

During this quarter, there were 88 mediation dispositions.¹ Of the 88 dispositions, 49 cases were resolved in mediation, 39 cases did not resolve, although 2 were withdrawn after mediation, and in 3 cases a hearing was requested. Of the 88 dispositions, 51 can be considered successful mediations and account for 58% of the dispositions. The 88 mediation dispositions compare with 96 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2004, an 8% decrease.

Mediation Results (SN Dispositions)

During this quarter, 757 cases referred to mediation closed.² Of these cases, 221 withdrew or were dismissed prior to mediation. In the 536 cases where mediation occurred, 339 cases were resolved at mediation and 194 were withdrawn or dismissed upon request of the parties after mediation began. These 503 cases can be considered successful mediations and account for a 94% success rate. Of the 72 cases that went to hearing, parties attempted mediation in 68 cases and waived mediation in 4 cases. These 68 cases represent 13% of the mediated cases. The 757 mediation dispositions compare with 688 mediation dispositions during the same quarter in 2004, a 10% increase.

¹These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 134 pre-hearing mediation requests. Many of the cases that make up "pre-hearing request mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for mediation was filed in a previous quarter. "Pre-hearing request mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case either being resolved, withdrawn, unresolved with no hearing requested, or closed because a party refused to mediate.

²These are not necessarily the same cases as those accounting for the 1,138 hearing requests. Many of the cases that make up "mediation dispositions" are cases for which the request for hearing was filed in a previous quarter. "Mediation disposition" means that the mediation attempt ended with the case being resolved, withdrawn, dismissed upon request of the parties, or referred for a hearing.

Law and Motion

There were 668 law and motion orders during the quarter. Of the 668 orders issued, 93 were minute orders (verbal orders) and 575 were written orders. An attorney or advocate represented parents in 487 of the 668 orders. LEAs were similarly represented in 542 of the orders. The 668 orders compare with 626 orders issued during the same quarter in 2004, representing a 7% increase.

Hearing Output

During this quarter, 72 hearings were resolved. Decisions were rendered in 29 of these cases (40%). All of the 43 remaining hearings were dismissed or withdrawn by request of the parties after the hearing had commenced but prior to a written decision being rendered. The 72 resolved hearings compare with 94 resolved hearings during the same quarter in 2004, representing a 23% decrease.

Hearing Decisions

A total of 29 decisions were rendered during this period, with an average of 26.8 pages per decision. The total days of hearings represented by these 29 decisions is 109, with an average of 3.8 days per hearing. Of the 29 decisions, 62% of these were rendered in favor of LEAs and 0% of the decisions were rendered in favor of parents, with the remaining 38% resulting in split decisions. An attorney or advocate in 26 of the 29 cases represented the LEAs, and parents were similarly represented in 22 cases. The 29 hearing decisions compare with the 41 hearing decisions during the same quarter in 2004, a 29% decrease.

Appeals

The Hearing Office was notified that 5 appeals were filed this quarter. 1 named the Special Education Hearing Office as a respondent.

Administration

Glenn Fait and Edwin Villmoare continued to manage all programs for efficiency and conformity. Glenn Fait, Ed Villmoare, and Mary Cote reviewed all decisions to ensure compliance with special education laws and regulations, and Jeanne Benvenuti reviewed them for clarity and grammatical accuracy.
